Jazz band competes at festival

Last week, the Jazz Band attended their League Festival at Cascade High School. Jazz earned third place as well as Most Outstanding Rhythm Section of the day! Congratulations!

Students explore STEM activities

Sophomore Taylor Hudson works with a 3-D pen recently with Mid-Valley STEM-CTE Hub. The pen extrudes heated plastic which hardens rapidly, allowing users to draw in 3D.

Classfeid Employees Week

FAFSA delays cause universities to delay enrollment deadlines

The Department of Education announced a delay in sending students' Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) data to colleges and universities until at least the first half of March 2024. This means that many institutions are unable to send students their financial aid offers until the data is received. Some scholarships have had to make slight changes also.

Here is a resource to check for updates:
