Science students worked on their micropipette skills

Ms. Eldridge's microbiology and molecular biology class practiced using micropipettes. Micropipettes are laboratory instruments used to measure small amounts of liquids. They used colored water to make pictures.

Seniors Hailie Couture and Ashley Hamblin and juniors Cas Gurski and Austin Hunsaker pose with their micropipettes.

Homegoing Week to celebrate end of school year

ASB is working hard to get ready for fun-filled activities and dress-up days for next week, May 30 to June 2.
